The First Step Towards a Stronger Community

Created in collaboration with SDSU’s Department of Child and Family Development, the B.S. in Child Development Microsite Degree Completion program will help you turn your passion for healthy childhood development into a rewarding career.

Program Highlights

- Two years
- Most courses are online — ideal for working professionals
- Four courses with in-person* components
- 120-hour hands-on* field experience with child and family service provider in San Diego and the surrounding area
- Experienced faculty from SDSU’s Department of Child and Family Development
- Instructional assistance, such as in-person* discussions and coursework guidance at your community college, provided by SDSU
- Student support and academic advising services at your community college, provided by SDSU
- Financial aid opportunities to assist with tuition costs
- Earn the same highly-respected degree as SDSU’s on-campus students

*In-person components are available virtually due to COVID-19 restrictions. Once restrictions are lifted and in-person education resumes at each site, these services will be provided on your community college campus.
