Started at City College?
Earn Your Bachelor’s Degree from SDSU

If you’re a student at San Diego City College, you can now earn a bachelor’s degree from San Diego State University through our San Diego City College Microsite Degree Completion Programs.

Program Highlights

- Online courses taught by tenured and tenure-track SDSU faculty
- A self-paced structure that gives you the ability to choose your course load
- On-site* instructional assistance, such as in-person discussions and coursework guidance at City College provided by SDSU
- Student support and academic advising services at City College provided by SDSU
- Earn the same bachelor’s degree as all other SDSU on-campus students

*In-person components are available virtually due to COVID-19 restrictions. Once restrictions are lifted and in-person education resumes at each site, these services will be provided at City College.

Choose Your Bachelor’s Degree

B.S. in Child Development
SDSU’s B.S. in Child Development Degree Completion program is led by renowned faculty and lecturers from SDSU’s Department of Child and Family Development. This program is designed to help you understand the physical, cognitive, and social development of children in the context of families, communities, and culture.

2 Years | Mostly Online

B.S. in Communication
SDSU’s Bachelor of Applied Arts and Science in Communication program is a diverse program that will teach you how to develop integrated, interactive, international, and intercultural communication strategies designed for the twenty-first century. The program also focuses on social problems, giving you the tools you’ll need to engage the issues facing our local and global community.

2 Years | 100% Online

Want to Learn More?
Contact Miros Gomez from SDSU Global Campus at mgomez6@sdsu.edu or 619-594-1623. You can also contact Georgina Garcia, your Transfer Center Coordinator from San Diego City College, at citytran@sdccd.edu or 619-388-3400 ext. 3722.