What does the business degree completion program offer me?
SDSU’s B.S. in Business Administration program provides an overview and fundamental working knowledge of the varied aspects of a business. You’ll receive a broad and generalized understanding of the functions of a business and how the various sub-disciplines within a business interact to contribute to the success of an organization. Courses are led by faculty and instructors from SDSU’s renowned Fowler College of Business.

What does the communication degree completion program offer me?
SDSU’s communication program is a diverse applied arts and sciences program that teaches you how to develop integrated, interactive, international, and intercultural communication strategies designed for the twenty-first century. You’ll learn how communication promotes civic engagement and allows for effective participation in today’s global community. The program also focuses on social problems, giving you the tools you’ll need to engage the issues facing our local and global community in a constructive manner. Graduates have launched careers in sales, government, human resources, training, education, and consulting. Many graduates have also decided to pursue advanced academic or professional degrees in fields such as law, management, and marketing.

How do I determine if I have the required prerequisites for the program?
If you’d like to speak to an Admissions Advisor at SDSU about program details or application instructions, please email admission.global@sdsu.edu. You can also schedule an appointment with an Admissions Advisor using the contact information at the end of this flyer.

Do you accept transfer credits into your program?
SDSU will accept courses from accredited colleges and universities that are designated as baccalaureate level at the institution where the work was completed. Some courses may be used to meet specific requirements in General Education or the major. Transferable courses that do not meet any specific requirement may be accepted as elective credits.

More information can be found on our Transfer Admissions Information page.

How do I apply for financial aid?
Students may apply for financial aid without applying for admission to the University. Students should complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to be considered for all types of state and federal aid. Learn more about how to apply for financial aid.

Are these programs accredited?
All of the degree programs and majors at SDSU (in-person and online) are accredited via the WASC Senior College and University Commission. The “WASC Senior College and University Commission” is the regional accrediting agency that serves a diverse membership of public and private higher education institutions throughout California, Hawaii, and the Pacific as well as a number of international institutions.
SDSU’s Fowler College of Business (FCB) is fully accredited by AACSB International — The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business.

Who teaches the classes? Are they SDSU faculty?
Courses in the online program are team-taught. Faculty who have demonstrated an ability to excel in their regular on-campus teaching assignments prepare all course material using the most current technology and tools. Facilitators who routinely teach the course on-campus or are subject area experts monitor the course’s day-to-day delivery. Together, their goal is to bring to you the same rigor and content as on-campus courses.

How long do I have to complete the program?
Although each course is expected to be completed by the end of the 8-week block in which it is offered, the degree program is entirely self-paced, which means that you can either slow down by taking a lighter course load or speed up by taking a heavier course load.
Courses are taught asynchronously. You’ll be able to complete the work on your time when it’s convenient for you within the due dates and deliverable dates.

Can I work while completing the program?
Yes.

How much does the program cost?
The cost of our programs varies depending on which degree you’re earning, how many units you’ve transferred in, and other factors. We encourage you to reach out to one of our admission advisors to discuss your academic plan in order to determine your individual cost. Please note that you’re also responsible for the costs of required texts and learning materials, as well as incidental fees related to your application for admission and graduation.

Once admitted, may I add another major or minor?
No, this is a degree completion program. No additional majors or minors are permitted.

Is it the same degree as SDSU’s on-campus degree?
Upon completion of the program, a student will be awarded the same degree that on-campus students receive.

- Business: Bachelor of Science in Business Administration
- Communication: Bachelor of Arts in Applied Arts and Sciences in Communication

The diploma received and transcript will not distinguish that the program was completed online.

Will I get to walk in my graduation ceremony at SDSU?
Yes, you’ll have the opportunity to walk in the commencement ceremonies and participate in other SDSU activities.

Are international students eligible to apply?
Not at this time.

What grades are required to graduate from these programs?
A minimum GPA of 2.4 for the Child Development program and 2.75 for the Communication program and the Communication program is required in the following areas:

- SDSU GPA
- Cumulative GPA
- Major GPA
- Minor GPA

What kind of disability accommodations will be in place for these programs?
Each student will be authorized for his or her unique set of accommodations based on individual needs. Please consult our Overview of Services and Accommodations for more information.

How is academic integrity maintained in the online program?
All SDSU students are expected to follow standards for student conduct. Dishonesty, to include cheating, plagiarism, and other forms of academic dishonesty, are behaviors inconsistent with the university’s Student Code of Conduct, which is accessible online.

SDSU adheres to a strict policy regarding cheating and plagiarism. Any cheating or plagiarism in a class results in failing that class and the possibility of further disciplinary review. Students in the online program must agree that all required written submissions will be subject to review by Turnitin.com for the detection of plagiarism. To uphold the integrity of exams and tests and level the playing field for students who fear that their classmates may be unfairly cheating to get higher grades, students in the online program must also agree to allow the use of a remote proctoring service when taking assessments.
