

B.S. in Child Development Degree Completion

Take the First Steps Towards a Stronger Community

Earning your B.S. in Child Development through the SDSU Imperial Valley Degree Completion Program will help you turn your passion for healthy childhood development into a rewarding career.

Program Highlights

- Complete your program in two years
- Most courses are online — ideal for working professionals
- Four courses with in-person* components
- 120-hour hands-on* field experience with child and family service providers located in the Imperial Valley area
- Experienced faculty from SDSU's Department of Child and Family Development
- Instructional assistance, such as in-person* discussions and coursework guidance at your college campus, provided by SDSU Global Campus
- Student support and academic advising services at your college campus, provided by SDSU Global Campus
- Financial aid opportunities to assist with tuition costs
- Earn the same highly-respected degree as SDSU's on-campus students

*In-person components are available virtually due to COVID-19 restrictions. Once restrictions are lifted and in-person education resumes, these services will be provided as normal.

Application Requirements

To qualify for admission to the program, you'll need to have at least 60 transferable semester units completed by the end of the term prior to transfer. You should also have a 2.4+ GPA and satisfy all CSU requirements. You'll also need to pass a background check and provide a Tuberculin clearance.

We understand that every student's academic journey is unique, and we encourage you to contact an Admissions Advisor to find out what you'll need to successfully apply to the program.

Application Period

Fall 2021 | Oct. 1, 2020-May 15, 2021
